Ms. Maggs was unable to attend. REPORT REP. HANNA

Mr. Smeltz expressed some concerns on the funding of Act 10. Mr. Snyder addressed some concerns on the House Bill 230 and how the taxes will be imposed. Mr. Smeltz added that there was a lot of Legislative Interaction at CCAP. Mr. Snyder talked about some of the issues they discussed at the Spring CCAP Conference. A panel of legislators spoke against consolidation of the Human Services departments. Mr. Conklin also expressed his interest in HB 398 which would insure the flow of Human Services funds in the case of another budget impasse. Mr. Snyder would like to see a bill that requires the State to fund mandated County programs at the level needed. All three Commissioners felt that a lot of good information was made available at the Conference. COMMISSIONERS REPORT

Mr. Snyder publicly thanked Mr. Pace of PennDOT for working with the County on street light replacements near the Courthouse. He also reported that the Commissioners' request to document the condition of the Courthouse before the Jay Street project was granted by PennDOT. This way any damage due to the project will be able to be identified.

There was discussion on the Award of DCED grant funds of $300,000.00 to Centre and Clinton County and concerns of how the money will be used throughout the County. It will be distributed into ten projects for $30,000.00 each. Mr. Smeltz has concerns because that amount might not be enough to fully fund the individual projects. .

The Commissioners announced that they will be extending the application period for the position of Planner/Grant Writer/Administrator in the Clinton County Planning Office to April 28, 2017.

Mr. Morris wanted to know the status of the Renovo Energy project. Mr. Smeltz commented that it is still going through permitting projects. They are negotiating to hook into power grids. The project is delayed for 6 months. They are hoping to turn earth by March 2018.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Mr. Morris asked about a marketing plan for the Conservation District building on Rt. 64. Mr. Snyder responded that they are looking into their options on how to get the most money out of it. They had a Fair Market Value done but have not released the results..

There were no Staff Reports. STAFF REPORTS

Ms. Maggs was unable to attend. REPORT REP. HANNA

Mr. Smeltz expressed his concerns on the passing of House Bill 218, which is the budget put through by the Republican majority. This budget would reduce state funding levels for many of the human services programs that the counties are mandated to provide. Mr. Snyder responded that if the budget passes like it is, the County will be in Trouble and will have to find additional funding sources to carry out these programs. Mr. Smeltz said we should expect another tug of war, and the Commissioners intend to contact key state legislators to tell them that they need to improve on the current proposed budget proposal. Mr. Conklin agreed, saying that he is very dissatisfied with it. COMMISSIONERS REPORT

Mrs. Meyers announced that there is new Artwork in the Commissioners meeting room by Margaret Kemmerer and announced that County offices will be closed Friday, April 14, 2017 to observe the Good Friday holiday.

Mr. Morris addressed his concerns that the Republican majority in the State House needs to step up and Fund the priorities of the state. No more excuses. Mr. Smeltz agreed and accepted the challenge to put them on notice. Mr. Snyder said he is sorry to say we have to remind our representatives in Harrisburg and Washington why they are there. Mr. Morris asked why there was a private parking space for Probation. Mr. Snyder explained that they needed a space for easy access to transport Probation violators. Pedestrian Walkways are currently limited due to the Jay Street Construction. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Mr. Conklin said that he is glad the County paid off the TRAN. This will save on interest.

There was a discussion about local tax collection versus collection by the County Treasurer. The County Treasurer's Office does receive a fee for collecting taxes for the municipalities but it is less than payment received by other local tax collectors. County tax payments are running ahead of last year's pace.

Mrs. Meyers said that on the bill total that we should perhaps identify items that are simply pass-through of funds to make our expenditures clearer to the public.

Mrs. Lannan reported that she is the Quality Supervisor for the Department of Emergency Services and she reviews what the Dispatchers have done with 911 calls the next day and reports back to them what they could improve on and what they have done well. She makes sure they are following the rules. She also said that the Dispatchers are behind the scenes workers and don't get a lot of recognition. STAFF REPORTS

Mrs. Heller, County Auditor, said that she was glad to hear that the Commissioners are looking into the IT contracts and bills. The Auditors only see the bills and sometimes have questions on what all the bills are for. They would welcome more information.

Mrs. Crowell, County Auditor, agreed that she knows there is a need for the contracts and software but would like to see more information on the bills they are looking at.

Ms. Maggs reported that there has been a lot of focus on the Real ID compliance right now. Pennsylvania drivers licenses are missing an RFID chip and approved symbol and this could cause problems for residents in the future. REPORT REP. HANNA

Mr. Smeltz reported that Mr. Hanna is looking into the landfill tipping fee House Bill for the Commissioners. COMMISSIONERS REPORT

Mr. Snyder read a memo from Secretary Dallas on his concerns regarding House Bill 218 and how the proposed State budget cuts will impact the state's vulnerable populations. The Commissioners are also very concerned.

Mr. Snyder reported that the CCAP 2017 Spring Edition magazine came out and Clinton County's therapy dog – Oakley was featured in an article submitted by Maria Boileau. The Commissioners thanked Maria for submitting the article. Our Therapy Dog is becoming famous.

PUBLIC HEARING

Prior to the start of this special meeting, starting at 10:00 AM, an advertised Public Hearing was held on the proposed action to create The Chestnut Grove Recreation Authority under the Municipality Authorities Act. The purpose of the authority will be to create, develop and manage various recreational facilities focused on youth sports in Clinton County including several fields, along with other recreation facilities such as playgrounds and picnic areas. There will be a 7 member Board to be appointed by the County Commissioners, all of whom must be a taxpayer, business owner, or a citizen of Clinton County. Board members' terms will be for five years, with the first term lengths to be staggered. Mr. Smeltz introduced two of the proposed Board Members who were in attendance, William Powell and Mary Margaret Winton and noted that Mr. Conklin will serve as the Commissioners' liaison to the Authority. Mr. Powell thanked the Commissioners for their leadership in the process of creating the Authority and for the funding that they have provided to get the planning process started. Mr. Conklin stressed the importance of creating a legal entity so that fundraising can get off on a firm footing and donors can be assured of the continued operation of the project long into the future. Mr. Snyder noted the cooperation shown by the Castanea Township Supervisors, and the Wayne Township Landfill. He also spoke of the opportunities this will bring for recreation and tourism. All of the Commissioners expressed their interest in seeing a facility that will provide opportunities for family activities for local citizens. They thanked the future volunteer Board Members for their willingness to serve.

The Special Voting meeting was called to order at 10:30 AM by Chairman Pete Smeltz.

Mr. Smeltz asked for a motion to approve Resolution No. 5 of 2017 to create a Municipal Authority to be known as the Chestnut Grove Recreation Authority. Motion by Mr. Conklin; seconded by Mr. Snyder.
