

Please consider the following as it relates to your firearms license:

1. Be familiar with the operation, safe handling, and laws related to your firearm. Although it is not the law, it is recommended that you take a firearms safety course offered by a competent instructor. Otherwise the firearm may represent a threat to yourself, your family, and your fellow citizens.
2. Unnecessary display of your firearm in public places can cause alarm to the public and may result in revocation of your permit.
3. Possessing a firearm presents an additional risk of it getting into the wrong hands. Practice safe storage and seek quality firearms training.
4. Your firearms license is for Pennsylvania only. To view state that are reciprocal with Pennsylvania please go to the PA Attorney General's website @ attorneygeneral.gov then "Media and Resources" then "Firearms"
5. Do not carry your firearm when consuming alcoholic beverages or taking prescription medications that may affect your abilities and/or judgment.
6. Carrying a firearm does create the possibility of it being taken and used against you and your family. Seek quality training.
7. Arrests for certain enumerated offenses or a Protection from Abuse Order is grounds for revocation of your permit. Your license will be revoked, whether the firearm was involved in the incident or not. State law requires that you notify us if you become ineligible to maintain your license to carry a firearm.
8. If you are carrying a firearm and come into contact with a Law Enforcement Officer, notify the officer immediately that you have a firearms license and a firearm on your person or in your vehicle. Then follow any and all instructions the officer gives you while keeping your hands visible at all times.

These are a few of the many considerations you should keep in mind. Please use common sense and basic handgun safety considerations at all times. Again, carrying a firearm requires responsibility.

Cordially,
